Overview

An Ohio native, Halie returned to the state after receiving her B.A. and earned her J.D. from Cleveland State University College of Law where she served as the Executive Editor for the Journal of Law & Health.

After graduating from law school, Halie began working as an estate planning and elder law attorney for a firm based out of Dublin, Ohio. She quickly gained a passion for helping families protect their assets from creditors and long-term care expenses. Halie's experience includes designing full estate plans for families, assisting with Medicaid crisis planning, and assisting families with estate and trust administration after a loved one has passed away.
