Overview

Jordan is a healthcare attorney with experience advising clients on matters concerning state scope of practice and prescriptive authority laws, HIPAA compliance, and Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement.

She routinely works with federally qualified health centers, medical providers, and trade associations, advising them on applicable state and federal regulations. Jordan also has experience drafting and reviewing Business Associate Agreements and Independent Contractor Agreements.

Prior to admission into the Illinois Bar, Jordan was a law clerk in BMD's Summer Associate Program and an extern for the BMD Columbus office for two years.

During her time in law school, Jordan was a legal intern at Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the United States Attorney's office for the Northern District of Ohio. She also served as a clinical student in the Manglona Lab for Gender and Economic Equity.

While at Penn State Law, Jordan was a Comments Editor for Penn State Law Review, a Law Lion Ambassador, and a member of the Women's Law Caucus. Her hobbies include traveling, trying new restaurants, yoga, and hiking.
