

Matthew T. Jackson

Managing Partner, Jacksonville

Matthew Jackson serves as Managing Partner of Brennan, Manna & Diamond's Jacksonville office. Matt manages the day-to-day operations of BMD's Jacksonville office and is available to all clients as a resource to support the other attorneys in the firm. Matt balances those responsibilities while maintaining an active commercial litigation practice.

Matt's principal areas of practice are complex commercial litigation, contracts, property, construction, business disputes and commercial cases. Matt also has significant experience in creditor's rights, government relations and public law. He has experience in all areas of commercial litigation including property and contract disputes as well as representing financial institutions in commercial foreclosures and workouts. Matt has significant experience in construction law, representing owners, contractors and subcontractors on a variety of matters. He has prosecuted and defended cases in federal and state court, arbitrations and administrative hearings before various governmental entities. Matt also serves as Outside General Counsel for a number of clients.
