Overview

Nathan is passionate about helping clients develop and execute their strategies to accomplish their transactional goals. He assists clients in achieving their objectives through detailed analysis and creative problem solving - striving to present complex information in an intelligible and effective manner. Nathan has experience drafting a wide range of legal documents, including asset and stock purchase agreements, endorsement and royalty agreements, licensing agreements, and corporate governance documents.

Nathan earned his Juris Doctor from Cleveland State University, Cleveland-Marshall College of Law and his Bachelor of Science in Finance and Economics from the The University of Alabama. While in law school, Nathan served as the Chief Managing Editor of the Cleveland State Law Review, earning the distinction of Editor of the Year, and his Student Note, Ending the Economic War Among States, was published in issue 70.2 of the journal.

Nathan was born and raised in the Greater Cleveland area, spending much of his youth consumed by competitive baseball. Outside of work, Nathan, an Eagle Scout, can be found in the outdoors hiking or fishing.
